Bollington Festival Choir
Musical Director, Donald Judge

Founded by Dr John Coope MBE in 1964, Bollington Festival Choir is a friendly group which retains its village roots while welcoming singers from a wide area.

We rehearse on Tuesday evenings between September and June, 8-10 pm at Bollington Arts Centre.

Our imaginative and varied programmes often include pieces chosen by members in a regular poll.

New singers are always welcome. There are no auditions - all that is necessary is a love of singing!
