SINGING DAY

Join us to explore the delights of the

REQUIEM

by Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Join Festival Choir members and their conductor Donald Judge to rehearse this work beloved of all choral singers. We'll be singing in English, and will conclude the day with an impromptu performance of as much of the piece as we can reasonably manage - friends and public welcome at 3.45.

The fee includes tea / coffee and biscuits and music loan. A rehearsal CD is available on request.
